Letter from our Executive Director

Dear Friends and Family of WISE,

This past fiscal year has truly been a year of accomplishments and great strides forward in meeting our mission. We embarked on the first year of our five-year strategic plan, which outlines the goals, activities, and timeline that will guide our organizational development moving forward. Most notably, the plan includes a revised mission and vision statement and expanded organizational goals that represent the changes to WISE since our 1995 inception.

To jumpstart our strategic plan, we welcomed three new board members as the tenures of two past board members ended. We made revisions to our communications strategies, including revamping our website and social media content to be inline with web accessibility standards and redesigning our branding with the support of volunteer professionals. Our organization embarked on our third and final project year at Washington Technology Magnet School to implement sexual violence prevention education, and has so far trained over 500 youth in grades 6th-12th in the active bystander intervention method.

We also expanded our partnership internationally in a collaborative project with Liberian nonprofit, Organization for Women Empowerment (OWE). WISE was able to receive a travel grant from the U.S. Department of State to travel to Liberia to provide capacity building support and facilitate the healthy relationships curriculum for families and community service providers.

As an organization we are looking forward to the continued implementation of the strategic plan, and creating more partnerships with other community-based agencies, funders and cultural communities. Please keep us company on this journey. You are a vital part of our continued success.

Best wishes,

Pamela Zeller, Executive Director
